

A photograph of a sports center building. In the foreground, a white sign on two white posts reads "CENTRO SPORTIVO PARROCCHIALE SAN FAUSTINO". The sign is partially obscured by green bushes. A paved path leads from the sign towards the building. The building is a single-story structure with a white facade and blue accents on the doors and windows. There are several windows, some with blue grilles. A large tree is on the left side of the building, and a tall light pole is visible behind it. The sky is clear and blue.
